

Please note, this is a suggested list only. It may not all be relevant in your case. You should submit the application even if you cannot provide all the evidence. You can explain in your application about any evidence that you are unable to provide. Note that if you have a partner, you may need to provide some of the below information for them as well.

Immigration/ID:

- Copy of your BRP and passport
- Copies of ID for your partner, children or other dependants:
 - If they have a BRP, submit this
 - If they have a British passport or certificate of registration, submit a copy of this
 - Otherwise, submit an original birth certificate or other form of original ID
- Letter about your most recent grant of leave to remain

Financial Information:

Bank statements:

- 6 months' original bank statements from all of your accounts (including savers accounts and children's accounts)

Loans/ debts:

- Recent credit card statements (if possible, 6 months' statements from every account)
- Support letters from friends/ family/ charity/ church about loans (if applicable - we can provide templates if needed)

Other:

- Bills that show your average spending
- Letters about any benefit payments
- Letter about child maintenance payments from the Child Maintenance Service/ Child Support Agency
- Support letters from friends/ family/ charity/ church who are giving financial support (we can give you a template letter for this if needed)
- Food bank vouchers

Employment:

- Payslips for every month from every job that you have had in the last 6 months
- Contract
- P45/P60 forms

Housing:

- Tenancy agreement
- Eviction documents such as:
 - Letter about rent arrears
 - Notice seeking possession
 - Eviction warrant

Support from local council:

- If you are being supported by a council, you can ask them for a letter/email confirming their support (this is sometimes called 'section 17 support')

Health:

- Medical letters

Family:

- Statements/pictures from dependent children showing how the situation is affecting them and anything that they want to highlight to the Home Office
- [If the school are providing extra support/proof of address] Support letter from school

Other:

- Any other evidence that you think is relevant and proves what you write in the application